Short Title

1. This Bylaw may be cited as "The Livestock Bylaw".

Definitions

2. In this Bylaw unless the context otherwise requires, the expression:
 - a. "animal" shall mean any mammal, excluding humans, or any reptile or amphibian.
 - b. "Council" shall mean the Council of the Resort Village of Elk Ridge.
 - c. "livestock" shall mean:
 - i. a horse, mule, ass, swine, emu, ostrich, camel, llama, alpaca, sheep or goat;
 - ii. domestically reared or kept deer, reindeer, moose, elk, bison;
 - iii. farm bred fur bearing animals, including fox and mink;
 - iv. animals of the bovine species;
 - v. a chicken, turkey, duck, goose, pigeon, quail, guinea or pheasant; and
 - vi. all other animals that are kept for agricultural purposes.

Livestock

3. Except as where otherwise permitted under the provisions of this Bylaw, or under the provisions of the Resort Village of Elk Ridge Zoning Bylaw, no person shall keep, maintain, gaze or harbour livestock within the corporate limits of the Resort Village of Elk Ridge.

Penalties

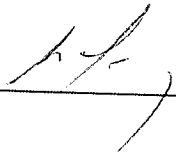

4. a) Every person who contravenes any provision of this Bylaw, or who fails to comply therein, or with any notice or order given under, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalties as herein provided in Schedule "A" to this Bylaw.
 - b) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this Bylaw to the contrary, where any person has committed or is alleged to have committed an offence under this Bylaw, a ticket in a Form approved by Council may be served upon such person, and if such person pays the penalty provided for the offence that they have committed or is alleged to have committed voluntarily to the municipal office at any time within seventy-two (72) hours of the time of service of the ticket upon such person, such person shall not be liable for prosecution for the offence.

c) Service of such ticket may be made by prepaid registered mail, or by personal service, or by delivery to an adult person at the home of the person alleged to have committed the violation.

d) If the person served with such ticket fails to pay the specified penalty voluntarily within the time allowed following service of the ticket, then the provisions of this section no longer apply and the person shall be liable to prosecution for the offence in a court having jurisdiction over summary conviction matters, providing that nothing in this section shall prevent any person served with such ticket from exercising their right to defend themselves against any of these particularized offences.

5. This Bylaw shall come into effect on the day of its final passing.
